

ITS OFFICIAL – INTELLIGENT MORONS EXIST

Peter Adamis Abalinx 7 January 2017

Recent social media chatter indicates that the clones of Leonidas Lakonas have reappeared giving rise to a new wave of intelligent morons to add to the fray.

No one cares, no one is interested. Grow up, stop writing your hate filled comments, your sending of malice ridden letters by post, by email, by social media, by blogs and websites. Sit back and reflect on what you think is the truth.

Many of those making the inappropriate comments are loonies, not born when the Brotherhood was first created and believe that they and only they are correct. If any group feels aggrieved, then use the mechanisms in place to put things into perspective. You get no respect from those who are willing to listen to reason. We were not born yesterday.

We are of the belief that there are forces who have remained hidden behind the veil of anonymity steering and pulling the heart strings and stirring up emotions unnecessarily. Your time will come in due course. You are but a minority and like the minority that you are, you will be overwhelmed by time and the events that take place.

Grow up is the message to all you intelligent renegade morons as you are doing more damage than you realise. No intelligent person uses the media unless they are desperate and have to resort to gutter reporting and not based on the evidence. There are people working to resolve this matter and you cannot see the wood for the trees. Stop your hate mail and other gutter and filthy commentary and you may get the rest of us to listen to reason. Personally, I don't think you deserve to be called Australians. If you are supposed to be the generation to replace us. Heaven help us.

As always, apologies to purists for my poor grammar and savagery of the English language. I wish you all well and hope that this article does not cause ambiguity in the minds of those who read it.
