

"O GREEKS RISE FROM YOUR GRAVES AND SAVE HELLAS ONCE MORE".

Abalinx 7 February 2018 Peter Adamis.

"Rise up with your sword in one hand and shield in the other, ready to do battle with the foe within your midst. The time of compromise and endless talk is over."

The above words could well have been spoken in a bygone ancient era when Hellas was facing peril, enslavement and extermination. But as always in its darkest hours a leader always emerged from the dark shadows and the chaos that reigned the land.

Ahhh I say with great emotion and a heavy heart that beats faster every time I hear that Hellas is struggling to find its way throughout the labyrinth of treacherous "ephliates". (TRAITORS). Do not leave it to the mob of incompetent political masters to lead Hellas astray and find it within your heart to remember that last Sunday the 4 February 2018 your government lacked the will power and courage to demonstrate leadership.

You all heard the lone voice in the wilderness shouting to save Hellas from external manipulators and a foolish government that refuses to listen to its people. Michael "Mikis" Theodorakis stood up on high, as aged as he was to tell the people once more of the dangers they faced if they did not stand up to the errors of judgement by the Greek government and to remind them that Macedonia was and still remains a part of Greece.

Greeks of old shed their blood fighting for their ancient land and did not shirk their duty to the motherland. Put aside your ideological differences and unite against those who wish to deprive you ancient Macedonia that was and still is part of Hellas we know of today. Do not have fear as your companion, nor align yourself with those who wish to comprise Hellenic heritage culture and traditions with forces that exert untold pressure to do so. Fight without the need for violence, by all means demonstrate your wrath and show your support to keep Macedonia Greek and not fall for wolves in sheep's clothing.

Bring down those who pontificate, cut out the political cancer with skills of a surgeon and rip out the hearts of political paper tigers. Only then will you cleanse the Hellenic earth of vermin who intent on destroying the Hellas the world loves. For deep within your breasts lying dormant for many years' lays the heart of lions and the strength of will rise to the occasion. Hellenes' you are not alone and your enemies may goad and annoy you, but in their minds they fear to wake that ancient Hellenic Spirit.

When you are back home amongst the elders and those still alive to remember the times Greece stood alone against an aggressor, remember how Hellas was united against the common foe. Regain your pride, self-esteem and the will power to strike back against those who want you enslaved. Do this in an orderly fashion without the need for violence or disorder and make your demonstrations peaceful ones. You will find that para military forces, Police and security forces will sympathise you if you conduct yourselves in a peaceful manner.

Seek amongst you the leaders to make this happen for no one can help you other than yourselves. Get out of your comfort zones and fight the good fight for Hellas has need of you. Listen not to the news media and fake reports of your passion, attendance and participation in demonstrating the wrongs of governments and self-seeking glory hunters. Do what is right for your children and grandchildren and let them sing the praises of what you too can achieve if you are all united.

Today the world watches you with intense interest and only you can make those changes necessary to maintain your culture, heritage and ancient traditions that are a part of Hellas as we know it. It is a well-known fact that every generation must fight for what is rightly theirs and this is your time. Your time to rise above the shackles and the austerity measures that have weighed you down. It matters little who is at fault, you deserve better and the world awaits your decision. From the shores of the great Southern Ocean, the Northern Canadian Rockies and the heart of Europe, Hellenes around the world are expecting great things from you.
