

PURSUIT OF KNOWLEDGE THE ILLUSION OF WISDOM

The Voice from the Pavement - Peter Adamis 26 APRIL 2013

Do at any time in our lives stop to question our own abilities to think beyond the grave and what is our purpose for living in what we perceive is a three dimensional world.

What if life experiences, knowledge and wisdom transferred onto the next generation is not questioned Will the new generation live within a vacuum and repeat the same life experiences or shall they profit from the past.

What therefore, is the purpose of pursuing knowledge, if wisdom is not gained and thus becomes an illusion. Is it then possible for life experiences, knowledge and wisdom to live in vacuums separated from each other.

Is it all for the regeneration of mankind, until the time comes where mankind has developed fully and able to master the heavens. What then are mankind's final frontiers.

The Voice from the Pavement - Peter Adamis is a (not for profit) Journalist/Commentator. He is a retired Australian military serviceman and an Industry organisational & Occupational (OHS) & Training Consultant whose interests are within the parameters of domestic and international political spectrum. He is an avid blogger and contributes to domestic and international community news media outlets as well as to local and Ethnic News. He holds a Bachelor of Adult Learning & Development (Monash), Grad Dip Occupational Health & Safety, (Monash), Dip. Training & Assessment, Dip Public Administration, and Dip Frontline Management. Contact via Email: abalinx@netspace.net.au or via Mobile: 0409965538