

The Three Nocturnals Wombat, Weasel & Fox

Abalinx 24 March 2018 Peter Adamis

The Wombat (alias Greg Mirabella), the Weasel (alias Greg Hannan) and the Fox (alias Ian Quick) have one thing in common and that is to undermine the Gladiator in the political arena. The Gladiator being none other than Michael Kroger who is battling the odds with the resources on hand. Michael Kroger will go down in history as the greatest President the Victorian Liberal party has known. Not only has he exposed corruption, cleaned out the cancer from the Liberal Party, but he has given it a new lease on life, by injecting an immune system based on good governance, young stem stem cells in the guise of a new generation of young Liberals, and is now in the process of filling the coffers with much need campaign funds.

However on the other side of the Liberal ramparts we have these three members, the three nocturnals undermining the very walls that give them the safety to express themselves against their chosen leader, Michael Kroger. Some call them the guilty party and other call them the three hairy nocturnals that share a habitat deep underground and known for their nocturnal (night) activities. No matter what you call them, they are not contributing to a Matthew Guy campaign to win government but are actively working towards their destruction as well as the Liberal Party. It has now become common knowledge that Ian Quick, Greg Hannan and Greg Mirabella are actively working against their leader, and against the interests of the Liberal party in Victoria.

Why these three have taken this stance and made their displeasure public is beyond me. The three of these gentlemen are asking the Victorian Division of the Party to re-elect them onto the Administrative Committee while at the same undermine the President, Michael Kroger and Matthew Guy's campaign to win Government. They are wasting energy, time, and resources by allegedly leaking information into the public arena. In some cases it is not even alleged but fact. I have said this on many occasions that it is fine to be constructive in highlighting errors that can be fixed and to bring to the attention of the Administrative Committee matters which require a decision. If the matter is in conflict with the Constitution they are to seek advice and guidance from the Constitutional Committee.

Post Script. I have written a number of political article on various subjects and other matters. Since that time I have received a number of abusive telephone calls at home and on my mobile. Furthermore please note that all my calls are monitored due to inappropriate behaviour. I have also received unwarranted and inappropriate threatening emails. As I take such matters to heart, I would like to point out that I have no malice towards any individual. In fact I admire anyone who stands up or what they believe in. I am the same and will do what is right in the eyes of our society. If any reader is aggrieved by my comments, then an apology is in order on my part.

I will go even further and apologise to all and sundry if my posts have offended or upset my very dear friends, mates, ex-military, retired cobblers political, military, community and all those I have met throughout life. But having apologised does not mean that we do not have our political differences and I don't expect us as individuals to see eye to eye on many things apart from wanting as in my case Liberal Governments in power. My disagreements if any with individual are never personal.

If those who read what I have written, please be assured that it was not my intention and I am sorry if people have taken it the wrong way. I have explained in another post what has occurred to my database and in my own manner of speaking I hoped that it would make matters clearer. If not then I am sorry if readers have taken my posts the wrong way. I welcome as always constructive criticism to matters which readers may feel need further clarification and I will endeavour to correct it. It may also mean that I may have to add a postscript to any article that I write in order that others understand that what is being written is not personal at all. Thank you to everyone for their kind support and understanding. Peter Adamis.
