

DEMOCRACY IN FYROM IS A JOKE

parliament speaker Talat Xhaferi.

Former VMRO-DPMNE leader Nikola Gruevski attacked the parliament speaker Talat Xhaferi while he was trying to get out of the parliament hall, after the opposition MPs gathered around his table before the start of the debate on the law on languages. Former VMRO-DPMNE leader Nikola Gruevski intimidated and embarrassed the speaker on a number of occasions while the speaker was in parliament.

FYROMITES in Australia and around the world have become a joke. They are nothing but thugs and the examples they are setting to the people they govern is beyond comprehension. They have lost all credibility and any semblance of integrity has flown out the window.. FYROM is a nation that is struggling to come to terms with its false history. I honestly cannot believe that such behaviour is condoned in their country. It reminds me of that other Slav nation in Eastern Europe and in Asia Minor where parliamentarians attack each other physically. Hardly the examples of a civilised society.

This video is from their own government in FYROM (The Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia. A pseudo-state that has communist origins and is an Orwellian state filled with secret police and education programs that lie about their origins.

The sooner people around the world realise the truth about the so-called FYROMITES who call their nation Macedonia the better. The originators of this false identity and stolen history have long since gone and yet their children who were raised to believe in the lies carry on the charade.

Australians are better off without such inaccuracies and lies from a community that has used Australia as its base to spread rubbish and distribution of false literature. Anyone with a brain can google the word "Macedonia" and it will tell you that it has Greek origins and not Slavic, a tribe that arrived in the ancient world hundreds of years later after the fall of the Roman Empire.

If FYROM wants to be taken seriously the will have to create a new society based on modern times and not steal another nation's history. I am honestly appalled at this type of behaviour. FYROM citizens need to take action against their own government and bring about change for the better.
