

Abalinx 14 March 2018 Peter Adamis

Welcome to the first of a series of Liberal Victoria political articles that may be of interest to subscribers and visitors alike. The aim of the series to encourage members, subscribers and visitors alike to contribute to the State of Victoria and return it to its former glory. This is a personal attempt on my part and my final tribute to the Liberal Party as a non-active member. It is the third time that I have come out of retirement to assist in whatever capacity I can using my own resources. I have never asked nor received any funding for such campaigns as I am a great believer in the Aussie give and take and being tolerant with others who have follow a different ideology and outlook on life.

Interested members may access the Victorian Liberals Data base of Articles that will soon be populated over the next few months. Subscribers and visitors alike with non-political articles as they would be linked to the subscribers list to receive articles associated with Abalinx and Associates. Briefly speaking, Abalinx and Associates is a not for profit social media network that has been in operation since 2004. It is a network of likeminded individuals that mentors, develops and enhances people's lives. All of those involved do so on a not for cost basis of which a simple thank you is the only acknowledgement they receive. Those who have the time may visit the Abalinx About page to obtain a better understanding what Abalinx is all about Political articles from previous editions can also be viewed by visiting the Political section on Abalinx. Articles regarding Matthew Guy may be viewed by visiting the section, Victorian Election 2018.

Readers may leave comments on each of the articles as long as the language used is in accordance with Abalinx and Associates policies that are found in the Abalinx About page. All inappropriate language will be removed and members removed from subscribing after one word of caution. Aussie humour that only Australians can understand is acceptable. Derogatory language crafted in such a manner that is demeaning may be removed if the direction and meaning of the penmanship is inappropriately crafted. Constructive criticism is most welcome and I take this opportunity to apologise in advance for any errors of grammar, spelling mistakes and mutilation of the English language.
