

BRONWYN BISHOP EXPOSES MALCOLM TURNBULL

Abalinx 24 August 2018 Peter Adamis

According to Bronwyn Bishop, Malcolm Turnbull has demonstrated poor leadership by his recent action regarding his recent request to see the list of those who have signed the petition for a meeting. Strong words by someone considered to be the matriarch of the Liberal Party and long-time politician.

Bronwyn Bishop well known by the media was allegedly forced to resign from her role and finally stepping down altogether. Whether her attack on Malcolm Turnbull is a personal pay back for the way she was treated by the Malcolm Turnbull team is for the readers to ascertain. According to the online discussion, Bronwyn Bishop said that she felt that Malcolm Turnbull's speech was a selfish and cowardly speech that she had ever heard.

The reason for requesting the list is for vindictive reasons. That he is a master of intimidation. He would go into Brendon Nelson office to berate him, insult him, swear at him and tell him to resign so that he could his place as the party leader. He has dragged the party to the socialist left gutter. He attitude to Defence is that we have sailors not talking about bravery but polishing their nails, where Victoria Cross (winners) are attacked, an Attorney General advertising Afghans to testify against our soldiers.

He has taken education back to the days of funding, where it was the Catholics against the rest. He has ignored the farmers drought and he has failed his own test by giving half a million dollars to a private organisation of people known to him. (A poor Captains call). For him (Malcolm Turnbull) to stand there and demand the 43 signatures is disgraceful and there is no precedent and there is no precedent for this behaviour.

Whether the words of Bronwyn Bishop were designed to destabilise Malcolm Turnbull is for readers to judge. What is certain is that such attacks are reminiscent of cannibals feasting on the remains of a carcass, being one of one of their own. The results of today's Spill outcome has been played out and it will be interesting to monitor the behaviour of our political representatives. Having said that, I realise that politics can be a dirty business, but if what Bronwyn Bishop is said to be true then we the mere mortals who look up at Mt Olympus in Canberra must wonder whether the gods of politics are worth believing in anymore. After all it is the role of those who represent us to set the example on what is expected by society.

Peter Adamis is a Journalist/Social Media Commentator and writer. He is a retired Australian military serviceman and an Industry organisational & Occupational (OHS) & Training Consultant whose interests are within the parameters of domestic and international political spectrum. He is an avid blogger and contributes to domestic and international community news media outlets as well as to local and Ethnic News. He holds a Bachelor of Adult Learning & Development (Monash), Grad Dip Occupational Health & Safety, (Monash), and Dip. Training & Assessment, Dip Public Administration, and Dip Frontline Management. Website: abalinx.com Contact via Email: abalinx@gmail.com