

Liberalism or Spanish Inquisition?

Abalinx 9 February 2019 Peter Adamis

An observers of Liberal party politics within the state of Victoria would be scratching their heads wondering what on earth is going on. Separating the web of lies from the truth is becoming increasingly difficult with time.

It is alleged that intimidation, veiled threats, letters, suppression of facts and truth and attempts to influence, physical intimidation of members prior to an Annual General Meetings are just the tip of the iceberg.

Furthermore it is also alleged that unjust accusations, witch hunts, investigations against members and leaks are being levelled at the Administrative Committee. A Committee that has lost the respect of its members at large.

Has the Liberal Party lost the plot? Is it descending into chaos? Are Liberal ideological paradigms outdated? Have Victorian Liberal administrators lost their moral compass? Why is money being spent on witch hunts and investigations? So many unanswered questions that boggle the mind.

The current Administrative Committee has resorted to Byzantine politics in their attempts to suppress freedom of expression at all levels. Is it not safe to say that, Liberals in Victoria need to come to an understanding before an all-out political civil war erupts? Unity should be the catch cry not revolution.

However not all is lost, State Council is where members may voice their indignation.

Peter Adamis is a Freelance Journalist/Social Media Commentator and writer. He is a retired Australian military serviceman and an Industry organisational & Occupational (OHS) & Training Consultant whose interests are within the parameters of domestic and international political spectrum. He is an avid blogger and contributes to domestic and international community news media outlets as well as to local and Ethnic News. He holds a Bachelor of Adult Learning & Development (Monash), Grad Dip Occupational Health & Safety, (Monash), and Dip. Training & Assessment, Dip Public Administration, and Dip Frontline Management. Website: abalinx.com Contact via Email: abalinx@gmail.com

Apologies and acknowledgement to the originator for changes.
 Maria and Giuseppe - Senior Liberals